Dear Parents and carers,

A-Level Results

I am delighted to share with you our Year 13 examination results released today.

Whilst we are still a growing Sixth Form our results continue to show an upward trend. Over half of our students achieved at least 1A*/A, with 63% of grades at A*-B, 90% at A* -C and 100% A*-E.

BTEC Advanced Business – 14 students sat this exam and the average grade was Distinction *.

Below are some of our top performers, gaining 19A*/A between them:

As a school, we are proud of all the achievements of our Y13 students, eighty -three have university placements confirmed with the final four exploring their choices before confirming.

As well as the hard work of students, I wish to thank you as parents for your ongoing support of your daughters and the school.

At the beginning of the new term, I will write to you with more detailed information about our school's A-Level success.

With very best wishes

Marian Doyle
